Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Scott Johnson

Plaintiff,

v.

Duke of Edinburgh, Inc., a
California Corporation

Defendants.

Case No.

Complaint For Damages And Injunctive Relief For Violations
Of: Americans With Disabilities
Act; Unruh Civil Rights Act

Plaintiff Scott Johnson complains of Duke of Edinburgh, Inc., a California Corporation; and alleges as follows:

PARTIES:

1. Plaintiff is a California resident with physical disabilities. Plaintiff is a level C-5 quadriplegic. He cannot walk and also has significant manual dexterity impairments. He uses a wheelchair for mobility and has a specially equipped van.

2. Defendant Duke of Edinburgh, Inc. owned Duke of Edinburgh located at or about 10801 N Wolfe Rd, Cupertino, California, between August 2020 and March 2021.

1 3. Defendant Duke of Edinburgh, Inc. owns Duke of Edinburgh located at 2 or about 10801 N Wolfe Rd, Cupertino, California, currently.

3 4. Plaintiff does not know the true names of Defendants, their business 4 capacities, their ownership connection to the property and business, or their 5 relative responsibilities in causing the access violations herein complained of,
6 and alleges a joint venture and common enterprise by all such Defendants.
7 Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the Defendants herein is 8 responsible in some capacity for the events herein alleged, or is a necessary 9 party for obtaining appropriate relief. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend when 10 the true names, capacities, connections, and responsibilities of the Defendants 11 are ascertained.

12
13 JURISDICTION & VENUE:

14 5. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the action pursuant to 28
15 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1343(a)(3) & (a)(4) for violations of the Americans with 16 Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq.

17 6. Pursuant to supplemental jurisdiction, an attendant and related cause 18 of action, arising from the same nucleus of operative facts and arising out of 19 the same transactions, is also brought under California's Unruh Civil Rights
20 Act, which act expressly incorporates the Americans with Disabilities Act.

21 7. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and is 22 founded on the fact that the real property which is the subject of this action is 23 located in this district and that Plaintiff's cause of action arose in this district.

24
25 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS:

26 8. Plaintiff went to Duke of Edinburgh in August 2020 with the intention 27 to avail himself of its goods or services motivated in part to determine if the 28 defendants comply with the disability access laws. Not only did Plaintiff

1 personally encounter the unlawful barriers in August 2020, but he wanted to 2 return and patronize the business several times but was specifically deterred 3 due to his actual personal knowledge of the barriers gleaned from his 4 encounter with them.

5 9. Duke of Edinburgh is a facility open to the public, a place of public 6 accommodation, and a business establishment.

7 10. Unfortunately, on the date of the plaintiff's visit, the defendants failed
8 to provide wheelchair accessible dining surfaces in conformance with the ADA
9 Standards as it relates to wheelchair users like the plaintiff.

10 11. Duke of Edinburgh provides dining surfaces to its customers but fails to 11 provide any wheelchair accessible dining surfaces.

12 12. One problem that plaintiff encountered was the lack of sufficient knee 13 or toe clearance under the outside dining surfaces for wheelchair users.

14 13. Plaintiff believes that there are other features of the dining surfaces that 15 likely fail to comply with the ADA Standards and seeks to have fully compliant 16 dining surfaces for wheelchair users.

17 14. On information and belief, the defendants currently fail to provide 18 wheelchair accessible dining surfaces.

19 15. These barriers relate to and impact the plaintiff's disability. Plaintiff 20 personally encountered these barriers.

21 16. As a wheelchair user, the plaintiff benefits from and is entitled to use 22 wheelchair accessible facilities. By failing to provide accessible facilities, the 23 defendants denied the plaintiff full and equal access.

24 17. The failure to provide accessible facilities created difficulty and 25 discomfort for the Plaintiff.

26 18. The defendants have failed to maintain in working and useable 27 conditions those features required to provide ready access to persons with 28 disabilities.

1 19. The barriers identified above are easily removed without much
2 difficulty or expense. They are the types of barriers identified by the 3 Department of Justice as presumably readily achievable to remove and, in fact,
4 these barriers are readily achievable to remove. Moreover, there are numerous 5 alternative accommodations that could be made to provide a greater level of 6 access if complete removal were not achievable.

7 20. Plaintiff will return to Duke of Edinburgh to avail himself of its goods or 8 services and to determine compliance with the disability access laws once it is 9 represented to him that Duke of Edinburgh and its facilities are accessible.
10 Plaintiff is currently deterred from doing so because of his knowledge of the 11 existing barriers and his uncertainty about the existence of yet other barriers 12 on the site. If the barriers are not removed, the plaintiff will face unlawful and 13 discriminatory barriers again.

14 21. Given the obvious and blatant nature of the barriers and violations 15 alleged herein, the plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that there are 16 other violations and barriers on the site that relate to his disability. Plaintiff will 17 amend the complaint, to provide proper notice regarding the scope of this 18 lawsuit, once he conducts a site inspection. However, please be on notice that 19 the plaintiff seeks to have all barriers related to his disability remedied. See 20 Doran v. 7-11, 524 F.3d 1034 (9th Cir. 2008) (holding that once a plaintiff 21 encounters one barrier at a site, he can sue to have all barriers that relate to his 22 disability removed regardless of whether he personally encountered them).

23
24 I. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE AMERICANS
25 WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990 (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all 26 Defendants.) (42 U.S.C. section 12101, et seq.)

27 22. Plaintiff re-pleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
28 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this

1 complaint.

2 23. Under the ADA, it is an act of discrimination to fail to ensure that the 3 privileges, advantages, accommodations, facilities, goods and services of any 4 place of public accommodation is offered on a full and equal basis by anyone
5 who owns, leases, or operates a place of public accommodation. See 42 U.S.C.
6 § 12182(a). Discrimination is defined, inter alia, as follows:

- 7 a. A failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices,
8 or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford 9 goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 10 accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the 11 accommodation would work a fundamental alteration of those 12 services and facilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).
- 13 b. A failure to remove architectural barriers where such removal is 14 readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). Barriers are 15 defined by reference to the ADA Standards.
- 16 c. A failure to make alterations in such a manner that, to the 17 maximum extent feasible, the altered portions of the facility are 18 readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, 19 including individuals who use wheelchairs or to ensure that, to the 20 maximum extent feasible, the path of travel to the altered area and 21 the bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving the 22 altered area, are readily accessible to and usable by individuals
23 with disabilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2).

24 24. When a business provides facilities such as dining surfaces, it must 25 provide accessible dining surfaces.

26 25. Here, accessible dining surfaces have not been provided in 27 conformance with the ADA Standards.

28 26. The Safe Harbor provisions of the 2010 Standards are not applicable

1 here because the conditions challenged in this lawsuit do not comply with the 2 1991 Standards.

3 27. A public accommodation must maintain in operable working condition
4 those features of its facilities and equipment that are required to be readily
5 accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. 28 C.F.R. § 36.211(a).

6 28. Here, the failure to ensure that the accessible facilities were available
7 and ready to be used by the plaintiff is a violation of the law.

9 II. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE UNRUH CIVIL
10 RIGHTS ACT (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all Defendants.) (Cal. Civ.
11 Code § 51-53.)

12 29. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
13 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 14 complaint. The Unruh Civil Rights Act (“Unruh Act”) guarantees, inter alia, 15 that persons with disabilities are entitled to full and equal accommodations, 16 advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishment of 17 every kind whatsoever within the jurisdiction of the State of California. Cal.
18 Civ. Code §51(b).

19 30. The Unruh Act provides that a violation of the ADA is a violation of the 20 Unruh Act. Cal. Civ. Code, § 51(f).

21 31. Defendants’ acts and omissions, as herein alleged, have violated the 22 Unruh Act by, inter alia, denying, or aiding, or inciting the denial of, Plaintiff’s 23 rights to full and equal use of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, 24 privileges, or services offered.

25 32. Because the violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act resulted in difficulty, 26 discomfort or embarrassment for the plaintiff, the defendants are also each 27 responsible for statutory damages, i.e., a civil penalty. (Civ. Code § 55.56(a)- 28 (c).)

1 33. Although the plaintiff encountered frustration and difficulty by facing 2 discriminatory barriers, even manifesting itself with minor and fleeting 3 physical symptoms, the plaintiff does not value this very modest physical 4 personal injury greater than the amount of the statutory damages.

6 PRAYER:

7 Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that this Court award damages and provide 8 relief as follows:

9 1. For injunctive relief, compelling Defendants to comply with the 10 Americans with Disabilities Act and the Unruh Civil Rights Act. Note: the 11 plaintiff is not invoking section 55 of the California Civil Code and is not 12 seeking injunctive relief under the Disabled Persons Act at all.

13 2. For equitable nominal damages for violation of the ADA. See 14 Uzuegbunam v. Preczewski, --- U.S. ---, 2021 WL 850106 (U.S. Mar. 8, 2021)
15 and any other equitable relief the Court sees fit to grant.

16 3. Damages under the Unruh Civil Rights Act, which provides for actual 17 damages and a statutory minimum of $4,000 for each offense.

18 4. Reasonable attorney fees, litigation expenses and costs of suit, pursuant 19 to 42 U.S.C. § 12205; and Cal. Civ. Code §§ 52.
